WELCOME TO GEORGETOWN!

Hi! My name is Sourabh Bhat and I am a McDonough peer ambassador.

Hometown: East Brunswick, NJ
Class: 2017
Major: Finance, Global Business Fellow
Extracurricular Activities: International Relations Club, Georgetown Voice, Hoya Helpers, GU Real Estate Club

Interesting Fact about Me: English was my third language, even though I was born in New Jersey.

What made you choose Georgetown's McDonough School of Business? I wanted a business education but I also wanted exposure to other fields both academically and in my extracurricular. That is exactly what the McDonough School of Business provides, in addition to the pursuit of cura personalis which makes Georgetown so special.

What are the best things about being a Hoya? Being a Hoya is not limited to just your undergraduate career or campus. Whether you're in New York or Hong Kong there are always Hoyas who will make you feel at home.

Why do you love D.C.? D.C. is an incredibly international and dynamic city, and there’s always something to do. It’s impossible to be bored because no matter what you enjoy, from running to going to museums, it’s possible.

Share a defining and/or transformative classroom/educational moment? This past semester I took a class on Marketing across Borders and several of our cases focused on products in China. This summer I am working in Hong Kong and was able to see what I had studied in class for myself. This allowed me to see the value of my education and how it would allow me to better understand the world.

What is your advice to incoming Hoyas? College is an opportunity to try new things. When you first get to Georgetown, there will be hundreds of clubs to join and events to go to, and so do what you you’ve always wanted to do—don’t feel like you have to do anything just because most people are.
